

BIOTECK SYMPOSIUM ESSKA

BIOTECK®

ROOM 242AB / 27 APRIL / 12.30 TO 13.30

A new therapeutic infiltrative approach for the treatment of cartilage and tendon diseases: the low molecular weight hydrolyzed collagen

- 12.30 – 12.35: Company welcome and symposium
introduction M. Morroni
- 12.35 – 12.45: The collagen hydrolysate biological background M. Buda
- 12.45 – 12.55: ChondroGrid®, hydrolyzed collagen for pain reduction and functional improvement in joints and ligaments.
Technical details M. Colombo
- 12.55 – 13.05: Clinical studies overview 1: intra-articular injection for the treatment of knee osteoarthritis M. Buda
- 13.05 – 13.15: Clinical studies overview 2: peri-articular injections for the treatment of tendinopathies M. Buda
- 13.15 – 13.30: Q&A

Lecturers:

Matteo Buda (MD): Orthopedic surgeon at Ospedale Riuniti Padova Sud Madre Teresa di Calcutta, Monselice, Italy. Specialized in Orthopedics and Traumatology at the University of Ferrara (Italy) he worked as clinical and research fellow at the Foot and Ankle Research and Innovation Lab at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Harvard University, Boston (U.S.A.) and at the Langone Medical Centre, New York University, New York (U.S.A.). He is co-author of 16 international clinical publications and 3 book chapters.

Marco Morroni (PhD): Scientific and Regulatory Affairs Director at Bioteck S.p.A., Arcugnano, Vicenza, Italy (www.bioteck.com)

Matteo Colombo (PhD): Scientific & Communication Specialist at Bioteck S.p.A., Arcugnano, Vicenza, Italy (www.bioteck.com)